

Department of Planning has informed that maps that do not contain any data should not be included. If a map set appears incomplete (for example, Water maps do not have map 001) this is because the map does not display any features.

However, the Land Reservation Acquisition maps are to be included despite the fact that no features are identified for Balranald and the maps are therefore blank.